Cultural Immersion Programmes (one or two students) at Amira

On “Cultural Immersion Programmes” we spend more time on the culture of the language than in normal private lessons. These are courses for your intellectual pleasure as well as improvement in your precise use of expressions. For these programmes, we focus on a pre-agreed aspect of culture : literature, history, song, cinema, poetry, theatre, or other art forms.... They appeal particularly to those who are actively engaged in culture, for example, as academics, writers, journalists, language teachers, actors, translators, arts administrators, sponsors However, you do not need a direct, professional reason to book such courses. You can enjoy Amira’s “Cultural Immersion Programmes”, if you have already completed study in the language at least up to the European level to B2.1 (Amira level 3B), have a high general education and a developed sensitivity to the cultural forms of your own language.

For your enjoyment, we will explore your chosen cultural expression of the language, while you practise the clear and elegant patterns of the best speakers. Whatever the focus, we stimulate your intellectual curiosity and reinforce the exactitude with which you use the language. By interweaving a natural approach to culture within a pre-agreed frame, your course will be non-academic and allow for digression. The language opens the door. In this course you step through and discover the world as viewed through the language, see its creativity and meet the refinement of its culture through the chosen form. And, as in any journey of discovery, we can linger over the new and the fascinating.

FEES These vary according to language / cultural focus / second student / special requirements:
